"I am for equal rights. I am for the National Organization for Women. I am for equal pay, and I have read Camille Paglia and Anaïs Nin. But this is utter bull. It's just more bull nineties political correctness." Basketball player BRIAN WILLIAMS, on the N.B.A.'s appointment of two female referees

"I say 'girl' because I love to annoy people. I love the word 'girl.' 'Gal' is pretty great, too. I don't just want to be called a woman. It sounds like someone with a mustache." Actress BETTE MIDLER

"I seriously wonder how many married men—married five, four years—would have the strength to walk away without inflicting some corporal punishment." JUDGE ROBERT CAHILL, during the sentencing of a man who will serve 18 months in jail for shooting his wife in the head with a hunting rifle after he found her in bed with another man

For an article about fashion, ELLEN FEIN, co-author of The Rules, refused to even try on a pair of pants. "I feel I would be misrepresenting what The Rules is all about."

"I think there are women out there who have a problem with other women being comfortable with their sexuality. And I'm not one of those women. I'm not an angry feminist in any way, shape, or form. I don't want to be a man; I don't want to flatten my chest." Country singer SHANIA TWAIN

"If it's a boy, I will have him in the yard throwing curveballs, and if it's a girl, I will take her to [tea dances]." Actor TONY RANDALL (77) talking about the new baby his wife, Heather (27), is expecting

"I hear they're thinking of doing another Grease movie. But Olivia Newton-John had a mastectomy. How are they gonna get her in a bikini?" Chicago radio talk show host ERICH MANCOW MULLER

Q. Is your wife a good cook?
A. "I wouldn't say she's a bad cook, but a swarm of flies got together and fixed the screen door. She uses the smoke alarm for a timer." GLEN CAMPBELL, country music star

by Alfred Gingold & Helen Rogan

"They're typical girl stuff. Falling in love. Wanting to ride a horse. That kind of thing." A BOOK EDITOR describing singer Jewel's book of poems, due to be published in June
